MIL STD 810G-516

This US Military Standard addresses the functional drop. It requires that an item can physically withstand the relatively infrequent, non-repetitive shocks encountered during handling and transportation.

Survives the drops, vibrations and bumps users encounter day to day.

IP-68

The international standard for Ingress Protection (IP). 6 is the highest rating for solids. 8 is the highest for liquids. IP-68 rated cases withstand circulating talc for 8 hours and water immersion to 2m for 1 hour.

Designed and tested to keep water, dirt, dust and snow out.

ONE CASE. FOUR PROOFS.

WATER PROOF

Fully submersible to 6.6 feet (2m) for 1 hour

This level of protection goes deeper than accidental spills and splashes. Users can take their iPad mini swimming, fishing and rafting. They can shoot underwater videos. Read in the tub. Take it to the lab, classroom or hospital. And simply wash it off in the sink.

DIRT PROOF

Totally sealed from dirt and dust

LifeProof's water protection standards also block dust and dirt. Users can take their device hiking, camping, hunting and shopping. They can use it on the job, in the field or in the vehicle. Dirt, dust, sand, grit and mud stay out, keeping the iPad mini up and running.

SHOCK PROOF

Survives drops from 4 feet (1.2m)

Drops are the number-one cause of device damage. Slips from the hand, falls off the lap, drops from the car roof and knocks off the table. LifeProof frē is built to stringent military specifications for drop protection to safeguard iPad mini from the most common mishaps.

SNOW PROOF

Completely closed to snow and ice

Since frē has no problem keeping water and dirt out, it's perfect for protecting iPad mini from melting snow, ice and sleet. Traditional cases can actually wick water from melting snow, drenching the device inside. With frē, users can take iPad mini into the wilds of winter without worry.
